Butler + Burke Presents Dalton L. McMichael Scholarship To Trevor Corns of Madison

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. – (JUNE 3, 2014) – Butler + Burke, L.L.P., a full-service accounting firm based in Winston-Salem, has awarded the Dalton L. McMichael Scholarship for Excellence to Trevor Corns. The annual $1000 scholarship is available to high school seniors at Dalton L. McMichael High School in Mayodan.

During his time at McMichael High School, Corns was a member of the National Beta Club, Mu Alpha Theta, Student Council, Senior Committee and the History Club. He was also heavily involved in athletics at McMichael, playing Junior Varsity and Varsity Football, Junior Varsity Basketball, and Varsity Golf. He received several awards during his high school career, including being a four-time Scholar-Athlete, as well as receiving the AFJROTC and Physical Development Einstein Awards. This fall, Corns will begin college at North Carolina State University, where he plans to study Engineering. Corns would like to one day own his own engineering firm.

This year marks the 10th anniversary of the Butler + Burke McMichael Scholarship, which was established as a way to assist deserving teens in reaching their educational goals. “Butler + Burke is honored to be able to reward these deserving students and positively impact their desire to achieve higher education,” said Jane Potter, a partner at the firm. “We see at as a very worthwhile contribution to both the future for these students as well as the future for all of us.”

Butler + Burke is located at 100 Club Oaks Court, Suite A, in Winston-Salem. Founded in 1976, Butler + Burke has professional expertise in financial reporting and assurance services, tax compliance, tax planning, retirement and education planning and business consulting.
