Butler + Burke Presents Dalton L. McMichael Scholarship To Lacy Alexandria Stevens of Stoneville

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. – (APRIL 25, 2012) – Butler + Burke, L.L.P., a full-service accounting firm based in Winston-Salem, has awarded the Dalton L. McMichael Scholarship for Excellence to Lacy Alexandria Stevens of Stoneville. The $1,000 scholarship, presented annually, is available to high school seniors at Dalton L. McMichael High School in Mayodan.

During high school, Lacy was involved in numerous service clubs and organizations, including the history club, Mu Alpha Theta, Drama club, Latin club, Beta club, Environmental Awareness club, pep club, and the National Honor Society. Lacy received the All Conference Tennis Academic Award and served as Rockingham County Schools Student Ambassador. Lacy also took the opportunity to volunteer as a Salvation Army Bell Ringer and work as a volunteer Bible School teacher at Comer's Chapel Baptist Church Vacation Bible School. She plans to major in Biochemistry at N.C. State University.

"Butler + Burke established the scholarship program in 2003 to assist young people with the resources needed for a college education, allowing them to reach their full potential and achieve their life goals," Jane Potter, a partner at Butler + Burke, said. "We admire students like Lacy and the previous winners of the McMichael Scholarship who strive for excellence, and we are pleased that we can assist them with the costs of their college education in this tangible way."

Butler + Burke is located at 100 Club Oaks Court, Suite A, in Winston-Salem. Founded in 1976, Butler & Burke has professional expertise in financial reporting and assurance services, tax compliance, tax planning, retirement and education planning and business consulting.
