Engel, Grant and Stanley Join Butler + Burke

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (SEPTEMBER 18, 2012) – James Engel, Kyle Grant and Hannah Stanley have joined Butler + Burke LLP in Winston-Salem as associate accountants.

Prior to joining Butler + Burke, Engel worked at Aquesta Bank in Cornelius, North Carolina. A native of Charlotte, he received a bachelor's degree cum laude in accounting and finance from Appalachian State University in 2011 and Master of Accountancy and Master of Business Administration degrees, also from Appalachian State University, in 2012.

Earlier in his career, Grant served as an accounting analyst at Compass Group in Charlotte. A native of Statesville, N.C., he studied sports management at Wingate College, attended Mitchell Community College and received a bachelor's degree in accounting from Appalachian State University in 2012. Grant served as vice president of finance for Pi Sigma Epsilon and also is active in Colleges Against Cancer.

Stanley was a staff accountant at Greene & Company, PLLC in Clemmons prior to joining Butler + Burke. Earlier in her career, Stanley was a staff accountant for Larco Construction in Winston-Salem. A native of Mount Airy, Stanley received a bachelor's degree in accounting from Gardner-Webb University in 2011.
