Charles Strode Joins Butler + Burke

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (DEC. 13, 2023)—Charles “Charlie” Strode has joined Butler + Burke, L.L.P., a full-service accounting firm based in Winston-Salem. Strode serves as tax director for Butler + Burke.

A native of Bedford, Virginia, Strode previously was at Saunders, Strode & Trawick, an accounting firm in Winston-Salem. Earlier in his career, Strode was a partner at Bruce Hall & Co. in Winston-Salem and a senior accountant at Flannery & Powell in Williamsburg, Virginia. Strode received an AB degree in accounting from William & Mary in 1972 and is a member of American Institute of CPAs and the North Carolina Association of CPAs.

“Charlie is a wonderful addition to our existing tax accounting staff at Butler + Burke,” said Jane Potter, a partner at Butler + Burke. “We are in the process of welcoming many of Charlie’s clients from his former firm to Butler + Burke, and we look forward to working closely with him to continue providing outstanding tax services to all our clients.”

Strode and his wife, Sheryll, live in Winston-Salem. They have two grown children, Michael and Nathan.
